

Theatre & Touring

SYMPOSIUM 2019

Monday 17 June 2019

Getting to the Barbican Conservatory Silk St, Barbican, London EC2Y 8DS

Conservatory: Level 3

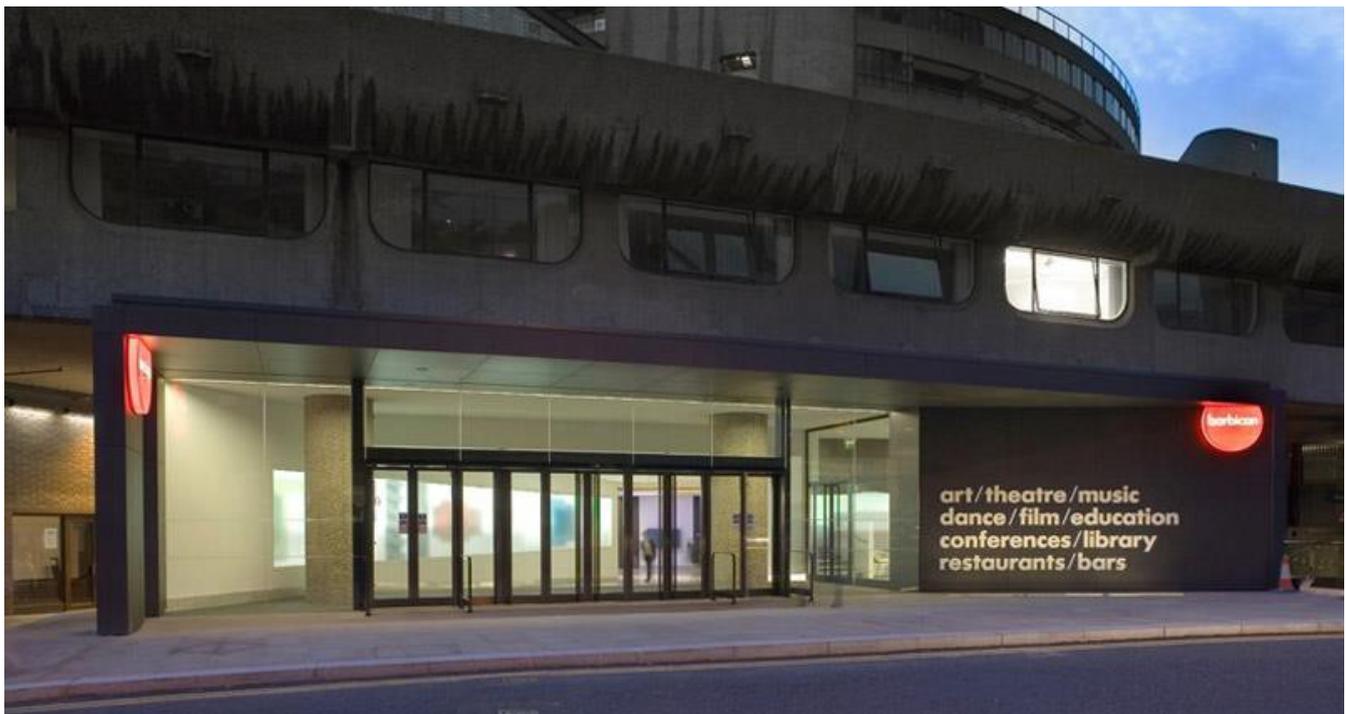

Plan an accessible journey with <https://tfl.gov.uk/transport-accessibility/plan-an-accessible-journey>

Visit the Barbican website for more details on getting to the venue, including access maps showing how to get to the venue from Barbican, Moorgate, St Pauls and Liverpool Street Stations and a full access guide with information about the interior of the venue.

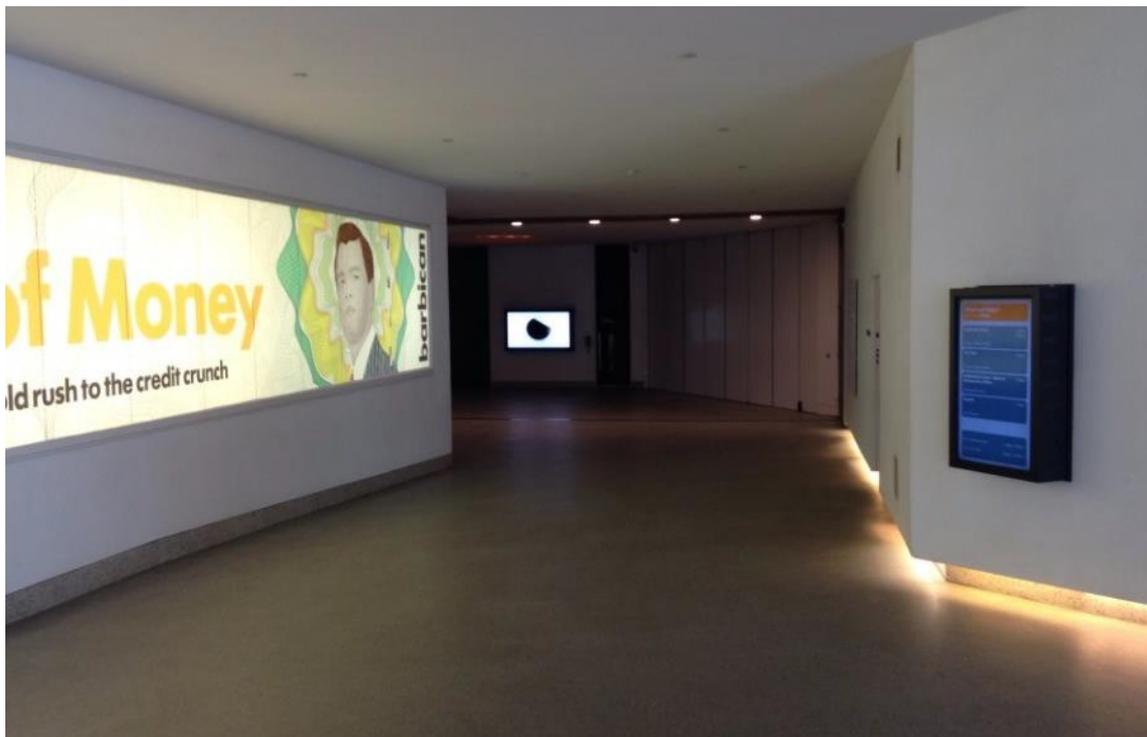

Getting to the Conservatory Level 3

There are several entrances to the Barbican Centre.

Please enter via the Silk Street entrance.

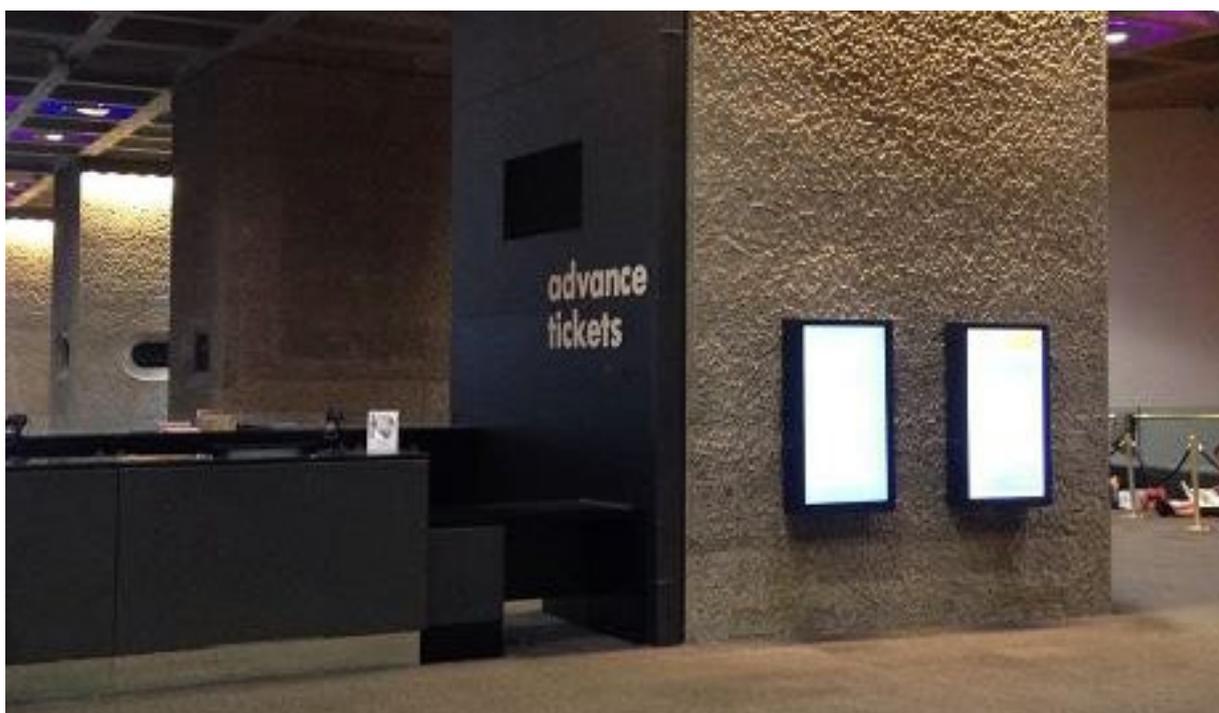

Once through the automatic doors, please follow the pathway down into the main centre.

Once through the next set of automatic doors, you will find yourself opposite the advance tickets desk.

Please continue onwards to the right of the ticket desk.

Continue on this pathway until you reach a set of doors leading to the Lakeside Terrace.

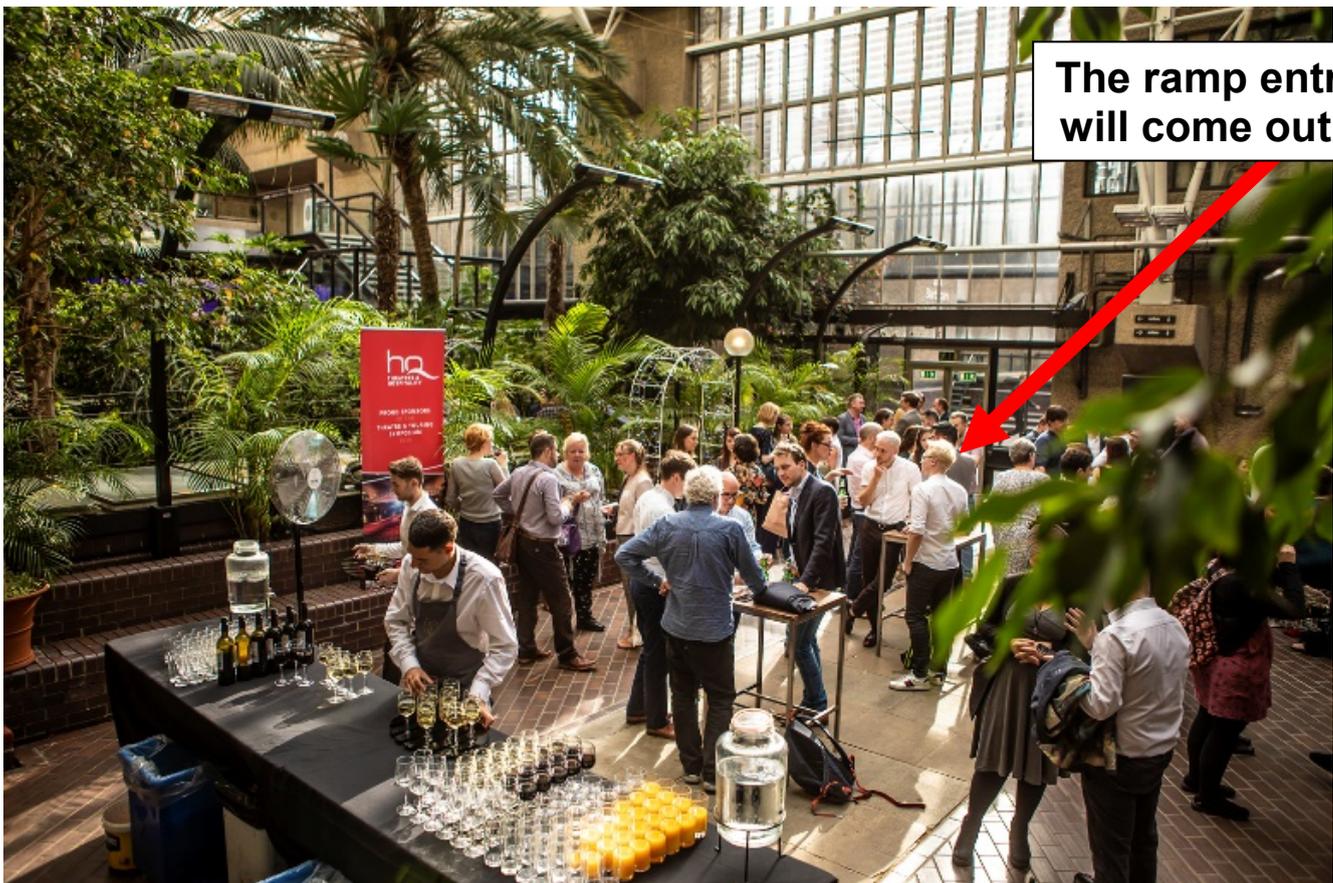

Immediately in front of the doors you will find 4 lifts, all of these lifts access level 3 where the Conservatory is located.

Once you reach level 3 you will be greeted by Barbican Hosts who can assist with the cloakroom and further information on the facilities within the centre.

The cloak room is in front of the lifts Level 3. Accessible toilets are on the left of the cloak room.

A ramped entrance to the Conservatory is to the right of the cloakroom.

Barbican staff will circulate amongst guests to serve drinks and canapes throughout the event.

If you require assistance at any point, please talk to a member of the UK Theatre & SOLT team or a Brewery staff member.

In advance of the day you can call 020 7557 6700 or email events@soltukt.co.uk and talk to the events team.

On the day call The Barbican on 020 7638 4141 who can assist you or pass a message on to the UK Theatre/SOLT events team